STRENGTHENING OUR FUTURE,
WHILE HONORING OUR HISTORY

Congratulations, Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation L.A.M.P. Graduates, on your successful completion of this special program. When you begin college this fall, you will realize immediately that you have been exceptionally prepared to excel in your academic courses and become effective leaders on your respective campuses. I commend you on your many hours of studying that produced honors-level grades and numerous college admissions offers. Your hard work has produced tremendous results, but you know you did not accomplish this alone. Your parents, other family members and the Archons and Archousai of Gamma Zeta have provided you with an incalculable amount of support and mentoring over the last few years. And, just as important, you have learned the essential principles of L.A.M.P.'s acronym -- Leadership, Achievement, Management, and Professionalism. Therefore, your parents, the Archons and Archousai of Gamma Zeta Boulé and I look forward to observing you apply those skills in college, graduate or professional school, and your chosen career fields.

Over the past fourteen years, the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program has been recognized as an outstanding program that has inspired and empowered young men to achieve their personal and professional goals. And L.A.M.P.'s success is due primarily to the leadership of Archons Gilbert Holmes, Earle Charles, and Ramsey Jay, in addition to the leaders and mentors of L.A.M.P. Your dedication and volunteer service have set an example for the program's participants, who twenty years from now may be the leaders and mentors of L.A.M.P.

Best wishes and much success,

Fraternally,

Antoine M. Garibaldi

A MESSAGE FROM THE PACIFIC REGIONAL SIRE ARCHON
MICHAEL KEELEY

On behalf of the Pacific Region of Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity, congratulations to the outstanding class of 10 graduates, their parents, program mentors and supporters for this most noteworthy accomplishment!

The level of responsibility demonstrated to successfully complete the L.A.M.P. Mentor program personifies the commitment by all to the success of not only our graduates but ensures a continuing dedication to their education, families, and communities they represent. It is indeed with pride and gratitude that I convey this message, well done! Continue to succeed and make us proud.

With warmest regards, I remain

A MESSAGE FROM THE SIRE ARCHON BERTRAL WASHINGTON

On behalf of Sigma Pi Phi Gamma Zeta Boulé, welcome to our annual Scholarship Awards Ceremony. Since 2009, Archons of Gamma Zeta Boulé have led and facilitated the Leadership, Achievement, Management, and Professionalism (L.A.M.P.) Program through its Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation. This year, we are extremely excited to provide scholarships to 10 young men who have persevered through a rigorous program designed to prepare them for success at the highest level in any career field of their choice.

In addition to scholarships, these young men have guaranteed themselves life-long mentors who represent leadership from a wide-array of professions. We could not be prouder to present our L.A.M.P. scholars to you and share the promising highlights of their achievements during this program.

We are also very proud of our Foundation, led by President and Archon Ramsey Jay, Jr. On the shoulders of visionaries before him, he continues to provide exceptional leadership which results in forward progress for the Foundation and L.A.M.P. Program. This success would not be possible without the support, guidance and direction provided by our Foundation's Board Members and Officers. Together, they work as a highly effective leadership team to ensure the program's viability forever. Archons Earle Charles, Gilbert Holmes, Darrell Miller, Russell Richey, Clark Rucker, and Harlan Ward; and our newest board members Mark Fowler and Nathaniel Reddicks. I thank you for your commitment and dedication to this outstanding program.

Although our Archons have contributed amazing resources to ensure life-changing impacts for these young men, we know our partners and supporters have the ability to provide great financial support which could provide impacts beyond our imagination. We also saw this from several L.A.M.P. Alumni who have contributed to the program or directly to mentees on their own. Words cannot adequately express the impact each of these charitable contributions have had on the program and our mentees. However, these examples do demonstrate that any level of contribution will have a significant effect on our program, especially when the contribution is made with purpose, knowledge of our program results, or the passion to change lives forever. I have inaugurated the Sire Archon Pledge to provide another vehicle for you to support the great work of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program. You will receive more details about this during the Celebration.

On behalf of our Archons, the communities we serve, current and future scholars, I encourage you to make your life-changing contribution today. Every amount matters and we will be sure to make every amount count towards a positive impact for each of these young men's lives.

Thank you for your time and participation. We look forward to continuing our work together with each of you to ensure the L.A.M.P. program continues to cultivate Perseverance, Pride and Promise for young men of tomorrow.

A MESSAGE FROM THE GAMMA ZETA BOULÉ PRESIDENT RAMSEY JAY, JR.

On behalf of the Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation Board of Directors, it is my distinct honor to welcome you to the 2023 L.A.M.P. Mentor Program Scholarship and Awards Celebration. The logo of the Foundation says, "Igniting the Torch of Empowerment," and that phrase could not be more apropos in the challenging times that we launch these 10 extraordinary young men into the world.

2-0-5-2-3-3, are six arbitrary numbers. However, those numbers represent the 20th day - 5th month - 23rd year - 3rd millennium; aka today. Today, as President of the Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation, I proudly certify that Marshall Dodds, Sebastian Fuentes, Hayden Harper, Xavier Haynes, Terence Matthews, Asa Phillips, Gilbert Roberts, Xavier Smith, Andrew Taylor and Sean Taylor have successfully navigated the rigors and expectations of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program and as a result have their torches ready to be ignited. These ten scholars have excelled in the classroom and in their communities. Seven of them have a GPA above 3.5; two of them added a new dimension to the Program with the Suit Bank, four of them have been outstanding student athletes, having captain their schools' teams in their sports, competed in and won conference championships, been ranked in the top ten in Los Angeles in their chosen sport, and entering college as a recruited student athlete, one is entering college as a sophomore, and three are outstanding musicians – vocal and instrumental. In addition, one of them has been named a Boulé Scholar (the country's highest level of distinction awarded by our national fraternal governing body Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity). They all established themselves as the best of the best, while simultaneously espousing a higher type of manhood, which is the hallmark of Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity. This is truly an extraordinary group of young men in terms of their achievements. More importantly, however, is the brotherhood that they have forged over the years that will last them for the rest of their lives.

I would like to express sincere gratitude to our Scholarship and Awards Celebration corporate sponsors, named scholarship underwriters, journal advertising partners, and all other general donors. It is the sum total of your tremendous generosity that has enabled us to raise a record of more than $200,000, from which we will award more than $101,000 in scholarships and awards. Thank you is hardly recompense for your generosity, but please accept its genuine offering in this form. Moreover, please consider yourself a perpetual member of the triumphant journey of these young men. Your partnership is highly valued.

Commendations are well in order for Archon Gilbert Holmes who serves as the Director of Curriculum & Development and Archon Earle Charles who serves as L.A.M.P. Program Director for going above and beyond to design, and implement, a world class transformational experiential curriculum and program for the mentees. Additionally, I would be remiss in not recognizing Mark Fowler and Elvia Bedolla for their leadership of our Parents Auxiliary Council (L.A.M.P. PAC) which helped form a more holistic ecosystem of support for our mentee network.

L.A.M.P. is committed to Empowering Dreamers to Become Achievers and accordingly my final charge is directed to the L.A.M.P. Mentor Class of 2023: "Every dream is seemingly impossible until you believe, try, and achieve. However, dream achievement requires an insatiable appetite for mastery and L.A.M.P. has provided you with a foundation to fuel your insatiable appetite for mastery and ignite your torch to empower you into a future of infinite possibilities. Now, go forth, use the foundation you have received, and produce excellent results by leveraging your superior knowledge and skill to change the world!"

A MESSAGE FROM THE
DIRECTOR OF CURRICULUM AND DEVELOPMENT
GILBERT HOLMES

Today we are celebrating the achievements of our greatest national resource – our students who will be the future lawyers, doctors, scientists, teachers, executives, government officials, business leaders, and policymakers that will direct, guide, and mold our society.

Congratulations to our graduates for the successful completion of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program. The skills, discipline, and life wisdom that the mentors, the speakers, and the members of Gamma Zeta Boulé of Sigma Pi Phi have shared with you will serve you well for the rest of your life. We have endeavored to ignite your torch of empowerment and you have responded by accepting the torch, accepting the fire, and growing into the fabulous men that you are. You have been prepared to leverage every personal, educational and career opportunity that may come your way in future years.

To the families of our outstanding graduates, you are to be commended for supporting and guiding your sons as they reach this important milestone. To the mentors, speakers and Archons of Gamma Zeta Boulé, and the volunteers, thank you for investing your time, talent, knowledge, and treasure to the highly successful L.A.M.P. Mentor Program. Your dedication to the young men in the Greater San Gabriel Valley for the past decades is to be applauded.

This year, I transitioned from Program Coordinator to Director of Curriculum and Development. The transition was made easy by the growth of the L.A.M.P. Leadership Team and the L.A.M.P. Parents Auxiliary Council. Special kudos goes to L.A.M.P. Mentor Program Director, Archon Earle Charles, Mark Fowler, Elvia Bedolla, and Gus May, the leaders of LAMP-PAC, and the other members of the Team for their exceptional work implementing the program this year. The L.A.M.P. Mentor Program has served as a model mentoring program for numerous other Boulés. The care you have taken in developing the sound template for the program is commendable. This mentoring blueprint should be emulated widely if we want to ensure the success of our young men, especially those who may be struggling to achieve. I would also like to recognize Archon Ramsey Jay, Jr. for his outstanding leadership as the Gamma Zeta Social Action Chair. There are no Sigma Pi Phi initiatives more impactful and valuable than our social action efforts.

Lastly, to the community members who have come to celebrate our fine young men and the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program, thank you. We cannot overcome educational and social challenges in our communities without the commitment of all of you. Together, we are the Village, Bound Together to making a difference in our young African American men.

A MESSAGE FROM THE L.A.M.P. PROGRAM DIRECTOR EARLE CHARLES

What an outstanding class of young men we are all here to celebrate; to support and encourage to remain on the trajectory that they have been on since we've known them as L.A.M.P. Mentees. This year's ten graduates (Gilbert Roberts; Marshall Dodds; Asa Phillips; Sebastian Fuentes; Hayden Harper; Xavier Smith; Andrew Taylor; Terence Mathews; Xavier Haynes; and Sean Taylor) have demonstrated through their own efforts in school; in L.A.M.P. workshops; and in the community at large that they are truly ready to lead us into the future. Please, do not just accept my words of praise and admiration for these young men, simply take a moment to meet each of them either in person or through their biography...or better yet, do both.

I congratulate each graduating L.A.M.P. mentee on achieving this major milestone today and I wish each of them to continue in this Brotherhood, and to never let go of the bonds that they have formed throughout the years that they were in L.A.M.P. Gentlemen, never forget “B. T.” – Bound Together.

To the parents of the Mentees, I congratulate you on supporting your sons for getting to this point in their lives. We all know that it was not easy to wake them up to get dressed in business attire on Saturday mornings to attend a L.A.M.P. workshop where among other things, they will start the day with a critical thinking challenge involving topics related to STEAM, offered by one of the mentors, usually, Ramsey Jay Jr., but they did it, and you brought them to the workshops.

We all know that a program such as L.A.M.P. takes quite a lot of planning and execution from dedicated and selfless people. To that end, with deep appreciation for all of what they do, I thank – Gilbert Holmes our Director of Curriculum and Development for his steady hand in developing the curriculum that is taught to the L.A.M.P. mentees, the fruits we are all witnessing today. I would also like to thank Ramsey Jay Jr., the President of Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation, the parent company of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program for his wisdom and leadership... and his Yellow Pad. Additionally, I would like to thank the mentors (Nate Reddicks; Mark Fowler; Russell Richey; Ferris Harvey; and Gus May) for being unwavering in their commitment to all mentees of the L.A.M.P. Program. Finally, for now, I would like to thank the members of the Parents Auxiliary Counsel (Liba Bagley; Elvia Bedolla; Mark Fowler) along with all of the parents who have volunteered throughout the year to assist in making sure that the workshop of the day is as successful as we envisioned during the planning phase of the event.

Lastly, let us all applaud the many volunteer speakers who took time away from their other commitments to attend workshops and share their knowledge and expertise with the mentees for use in their future growth and endeavors.

To everyone in attendance today, thank you for being here and if you believe in these young men and the mentees remaining in this cohort, on behalf of the 36 mentees of the 2022-23 class, I thank you for your continued support.

Regards,
Earle

MASTER OF CEREMONIES

DAYLON ADKISON

Daylon Adkison is an alumnus of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program, graduating in 2019. Upon completion of the program, he was selected for the Boulé Scholar Program (BSP), the highest recognition that Sigma Pi Phi, the national fraternity that includes Gamma Zeta Boulé and Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation. Daylon participated in the networking opportunities that the Boulé Scholars Program provides.

Daylon is a 2023 graduate of Prairie View A&M. He received a bachelor's degree in computer science with a concentration in Cybersecurity and graduated magna cum laude with a 3.81 GPA. At Prairie View, Daylon had a full-ride Regents scholarship with honors. He plans to continue his studies at Prairie View A&M University for the completion of a master's degree in computer science, graduating in Spring 2024.

During his undergraduate attendance, Daylon participated in five internships, including Dell Corporation, Ideo Colab and KPMG. He is the current president of the Cyber-Security Club, and is actively researching the mitigation of insider threats under PVAMU's Student Research program in collaboration with Goldman Sachs and Southern Methodist University.

Daylon attended Monrovia High School. He was president of the student government, captain of the track and field team, an accomplished pianist, and a software programmer and computer engineer, having assembled a fully functional computer at the age of 14. He created WESPEAK, a program to assist and encourage elementary and middle school children in his church learn and be comfortable with public speaking.

In the future, Daylon hopes to become a cybersecurity engineer, ethical hacker, and entrepreneur, successfully securing companies from internal and external technological threats. Daylon attributes much of his success to the values taught during his time in the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program.

MASTER OF CEREMONIES TYLER STREET

Tyler Street is a 2020 graduate of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program. He is entering his senior year at Marist College where he is the second-term president of the Class of 2024. Tyler has secured a highly competitive summer analyst internship at Goldman Sachs' AYCO Consumer Wealth Management Division and will be headed to Chicago shortly after the semester ends, where he will immerse himself in finance and wealth management, and learning about accounting, investing, taxes, and financial planning. He points to the many experiences he's had access to both on and off campus as factors that helped distinguish him from other candidates.

These experiences have included working with BLK Capital Management, a black-owned and student-run non-profit focused on investment management; participating in the Marist School of Management's Mentorship Program, which connects students with Marist alumni who serve as professional mentors; joining Beta Alpha Psi Finance Fraternity and the Student Government Association; and completing internships both in the U.S. and abroad.

"The School of Management Mentorship Program and getting involved with organizations like BLK Capital Management have been ultimate game changers for me at Marist," said Street. "The mentorship program helped me get the Goldman Sachs internship, as well as so many other opportunities that wouldn't have been possible without it."

Tyler graduated from Maranatha High School where he was Captain of the track and field team, played football, and excelled in speech and debate. His first job was working for DeWalt Brown at Pasa Alta Manor. He chose Marist College for its finance program, study abroad opportunities, and beautiful campus after being encouraged by a number of mentors and family members. At Marist, he was elected President of the Marist chapter of the largest fraternity on campus, Kappa Sigma Fraternity. Street also became a lifetime member of the Beta Alpha Psi Fraternity, a finance and accounting fraternity where he mentors other undergraduate students in the "Beta Buddy" program. He also belongs to the Business and Investment Club and participates in football and basketball intramurals.

Street has worked as a student financial assistant for Marist Student Financial Services, helping with financial literacy events and reviewing financial details about loan status and billing to students and parents. He has also worked as a polling interviewer for the Marist Poll, an Operations Area Manager Intern for Amazon, and interned at the accounting firm PKF O'Connor Davies, LLP.

However, Street noted that one of his most memorable experiences at Marist was spending a semester in London in the FIE Study Abroad Program, where he was able to visit over 12 countries and intern at London Mutual Credit Union as a loan administrator.

Street's mentor, Tom Murray '02, Marist School of Management advisory board member and managing director at Goldman Sachs, and L.A.M.P. Alumnus Russell Richey III, Class of 2010, a private wealth manager at Goldman Sachs, encouraged Street to pursue opportunities with Goldman Sachs. The relationship with Goldman Sachs developed when Street attended the investment firm's Possibilities Summit, where only four percent of over 7,000 applicants were selected to attend and network with industry professionals at the firm.

When Tyler graduated from the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program he said his life philosophy was, "give all you've got every day." Since Street entered Marist in the heart of the pandemic, he has manifested that philosophy while using his college experience to foster a sense of resilience and opportunity.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

WILLIAM A. KEYES IV, PH.D

Bill Keyes hitchhiked from North Carolina to Washington, DC in 1978 to pursue a dream of working in public policy. He realized that dream by working in a staff position at the Joint Economic Committee of the United States Congress and as a White House Senior Policy Advisor.

He is proud to be the founder and president of the Institute for Responsible Citizenship. The organization selects some of America's best and brightest African American male college students for an intensive two-summer program in Washington, DC. Among the young men the Institute has served since 2003 are Rhodes Scholars, Fulbright Scholars, Truman Scholars, Udall Scholars, and the recipients of numerous other prestigious academic honors. They have earned membership in Phi Beta Kappa and Golden Key International. They have earned PhD's, MD's, JD's, MBA's, and other degrees. And they are working as pastors, teachers, college professors, entrepreneurs, Wall Street analysts, lawyers, doctors, and a judge.

Awards Keyes has received for his work in education include the Mac A. Stewart Distinguished Award for Service by the Todd A. Bell National Resource Center at Ohio State University and the Dr. Asa G. Hilliard Model of Excellence Award from the College Board. He also received the Warrior Award at the 2017 International Colloquium on Black Males in Education.

Keyes has also received numerous awards from his alma mater, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He was tapped for the Order of the Golden Fleece, the most prestigious honorary society at UNC and the oldest university honor society of its kind in the nation. And, as a doctoral student, he was inducted into the Frank Porter Graham Honor Society. In October 2019, he was presented with the prestigious Harvey E. Beech Outstanding Alumni Award at UNC's Black Alumni Reunion and in April 2022, he was presented the Distinguished Service Medal by the General Alumni Association. Last fall, he received the William Richard Davie Award, the highest award the Board of Trustees bestows. Keyes is the only person in the 227-year history of the University of North Carolina to earn a PhD while serving on the board of trustees.

Bill Keyes is an Archon in the Beta Nu Boulé in northern Virginia and designed their social action program, which is similar to the one we have at Gamma Zeta.

JULIUS JOHNSON MEMORIAL COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD

Archon Julius Johnson was the youngest member of the 11 founding Archons of Gamma Zeta Boulé. Archon Johnson worked to develop Gamma Zeta Boulé and build its membership. In 1998, Gamma Zeta Boulé determined that it could be a catalyst to drive transformative change in the community by raising money to support African-American high school students' pursuits of higher education. Their vision was realized on April 30, 1999, when the Gamma Zeta Boule Foundation was incorporated in the state of California. The Foundation's initial officers were Julius Johnson, CEO, James Johnson, Secretary and Archon Shaferq Shahsid'deen, CFO, all of whom were members of the Gamma Zeta Boulé. Two years later, in the fall of 2009, in acknowledgment of the rich talent, relationships and resources possessed by members of the Boulé, GZBF launched the L.A.M.P. (Leadership, Achievement, Management and Professionalism) Mentor Program. Archon Johnson was a stalwart of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program's success and his passing in June 2020 from complication related to COVID-19 has created an irreplaceable void. To honor his legacy, the Gamma Zeta Boule Foundation created the Archon Julius Johnson Community Service award and bestows the award periodically. This year's recipient is Shawn Brown.

Shawn Brown is the founder and Executive Director of Pasadena Rosebud Academy Charter School. She has served in the field of education for over 25 years. Currently she serves as a California Charter School Association (CCSA) Member Counsel Representative for Serving Black Students with Excellence. She received a bachelor's degree in economics from Cal State Northridge, and a master's degree in educational leadership and administrative credentials from Cal State Los Angeles.

Ms. Brown is the author of The Purpose Driven School, a book that is a blueprint for educational leaders on their quest to fashioning great schools. She is a practitioner and endeavors to share her knowledge and wisdom with educational leaders, governing boards, policy makers, parents, and the community. She recently delivered a TedxTalk on the Achievement Gap. The calling on her life continues to motivate and inspire her to work towards improving education for ALL students.

As a longtime resident of Altadena, Ms. Brown not only serves her community as an educator, but she is also a volunteer and member of the Tournament of Roses.

GAMMA ZETA BOULÉ FOUNDATION

The Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation is committed to cultivating, achieving, and sustaining the highest quality of life within the greater San Gabriel Valley community through improvement in the areas of Leadership, Economic Development, Education and Social Development.

The Foundation lives out this commitment through two signature programs, the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program, and the Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation STEAMposium. The Foundation began providing scholarships to high school students in 1998.

In 2009, the Foundation decided to launch the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program, a special mentoring program. The purpose of the L.A.M.P. program has been to develop the leadership potential in young men. The program promotes leadership, volunteerism, community service, civic involvement, and decision-making skills in participants.

In 2015, the Foundation partnered with Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Inc.'s Pasadena Alumnae Chapter to offer the Career STEAMposium program to promote Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Math to the youth of the community.

The Gamma Zeta Boulé Foundation also hosts an annual scholarship luncheon. At the luncheon, the Foundation recognizes graduating high school seniors who are members of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program. The Foundation awards each student a scholarship to support his future endeavors. The luncheon also provides an opportunity for businesses, individuals, and community organizations to support the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program and the graduating seniors through sponsorship and scholarship donations.

Xavier played club and scholastic soccer. He volunteers at Midnight Mission and has been a participant in Jack & Jill of America since 2018, having held the position of Teen Fundraising Coordinator. He is the co-founder of the L.A.M.P. Mentor Program Suit Bank which provides gently used clothes to mentees. Xavier expressed, "The Suit Bank helps continue the development of brotherhood and community among the Mentees by making sure everyone has business clothes." He has balanced academics and extracurricular activities while working a part-time job.

Xavier will attend the University of Arizona where he will study behavioral economics, exploring his passion for how human behaviors work and connect within the economy. His personal life philosophy is, "Everything in life is temporary, even life itself, but the one thing that sticks with you throughout its entirety is you, so find yourself before you look for anything else."

GILBERT ROBERTS

JOHN MUIR HIGH SCHOOL

Gilbert is graduating from John Muir High School. While at Muir, Gilbert excelled in Water Polo. He was Captain of the team in his senior year and led the team to the CIF Championship. He was the MVP of the team in 2022 and second Team All-Conference in Water Polo in 2023. He works as a lifeguard for the City of Pasadena. In that position, he facilitates swimming lessons and supervises the swimming activities at the pools. He is also studying to obtain his real estate sales license.

Gilbert was a recognized student leader at John Muir. He was a regular participant in the Mentoring and Partnership for Youth Development (MPYD) Program at the high school.

Gilbert will be attending Pasadena City College as the initial phase of his quest to have a career in Radiology. His life philosophy is, "Be the best you can be."

ANDREW TAYLOR

GRANADA HILLS CHARTER HIGH SCHOOL

Andrew is a senior at Granada Hills Charter High School and has had an exceptional high school career. He is a member of the National Honor Society and California Scholarship Federation, co-valedictorian of his graduating class, and will be a graduate of the Advanced Placement Capstone program. He is a recipient of the College Board African American Recognition Award, an AP Scholar with Distinction Award, and an Academic Excellence Recognition by the Council of African American Parents.

In addition, Andrew serves as editor-in-chief of his high school yearbook. He is a varsity track and field athlete, social media manager for the Space Club, and his team was a finalist in the California NanoSystems Institute's Nanovation Competition at UCLA.

Andrew's volunteering included handcrafting blankets for the My Stuff Bags Foundation, tutoring second grade students in the Study Buddy Program, and volunteering with the Reclaim Our Vote Organization to write and mail postcards urging historically disenfranchised people of color to vote.

Andrew will attend the University of California, Berkley, where he will major in society and the environment with a pre-law emphasis. His personal life philosophy is, "Everything will be ok in the end. If it's not ok, it's not the end."

SEAN TAYLOR

GRANADA HILLS CHARTER HIGH SCHOOL

Sean is a graduate of Granada Hills Charter High School. He is co-valedictorian of his class and is graduating with a 4.4 GPA and an Advanced Placement Capstone diploma. He has received a National College Resources Foundation scholarship, an AP Scholar with Distinction Award, and the College Board African American Recognition Award. He has completed a University of Michigan Anatomy: Musculoskeletal and Integumentary System course and excelled in ten different AP classes.

Sean is captain of the Granada Hills Track & Field Team and has run Cross Country for the past two years, placing sixth in Los Angeles at the Cross-Country finals, earning team MVP honors, and qualifying for the state championships. Currently, he ranks fourth in the city for both the mile and the two-mile. He was also selected for the CIF Los Angeles Boys All-Academic Team.

Sean has been very active as a volunteer, making blankets for at-risk children through the My Stuff Bags Foundation, cleaning parks and beaches with the Pacific Beach Coalition, tutoring and mentoring middle school kids during the pandemic with the Study Buddy Program, raising funds and promoting voter registration through the Reclaim Your Vote organization, and participating in numerous other volunteer opportunities like food and clothing recycling drives, running miles for charity, and helping to end world hunger by participating in the United Nation's Free Rice game.

Sean will attend UCLA where he will be studying occupational therapy with a plan to pursue a career in healthcare. His personal life philosophy is "Stay Curious."

CONGRATUALATIONS SEBASTIAN FUENTES!

Graduate of the LAMP Mentor Program

Our Grandson Sebastian Fuentes has successfully completed the LAMP Mentor Program. Sebastian has shown remarkable dedication and commitment to his education, his sport, and his community and we are confident that he will continue to achieve great things in the future.

The LAMP Mentor Program is a rigorous program designed to prepare high school age Black Men for success in college and beyond. It provides students with the tools and resources they need to excel academically and personally as well as the support they need to develop important life skills.

Sebastian has not only completed the program, but he has done so with flying colors. His hard work, perseverance, and determination have paid off, and we are thrilled to celebrate this important milestone with him.

Congratulations again, Sebastian, on your achievements. We know that you will go on to accomplish amazing things, and we wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

We love you,
Your Nana and Dadah,
Pam and Earle Charles

Congratulations!

Just when we thought we couldn't be prouder of you, Sebastian, there you go again. We're in awe of your accomplishments and can't wait to see you grow. Your destiny awaits you, Sab. You've trailblazed a path to a promising, exciting, and joy-filled future. We can't wait to be a part of it. Congratulations.

Love, Bev, Bianca and Sherill.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Sebastian,

We feel quite proud of your accomplishments as an athlete and scholar. You have always been focused and dedicated in your pursuit and we feel that our ancestors are pleased with the way you are honoring them. We, your uncles, are anticipating many more incredible things from you.
